Professor Willie, I wanted to thank you for the warm welcome in your classroom last week. I thoroughly enjoyed witnessing first hand your rapport with the students. Each of them are learning and are anxious for the next tidbit of life's lessons. You really do break the information down and put it in their terms. They are remembering the concepts, the objectives, and they probably don't realize it. Although, they did specifically list what they are learning. I appreciate your delivery and your passion for student success. Again, thank you for having me, and especially including me in your fantastic classroom.
