I have been lucky to have Mike Bowler as an educator for over 5 years now. He is thorough with his detail and wonderfully creative. He always takes the time to go up and beyond what is required. He has helped me launch my internet and networking career at the beginning and has continued to be a motivational reminder to stay up to date. I have always taken away at least three new ideas from each seminar/class of his. Thank you for all of your efforts and your continued education you keep bringing to the table. - Nicole Kitzmiller with Coldwell Banker -

I have known Mike Bowler Sr. and his association with Coldwell Banker for many years.

Mike is a very dedicated individual to learning and teaching many areas of the real estate business to help agents move forward in their career. It is always a pleasure to be at a meeting where Mike is doing a presentation as you will leave knowing just a bit more. I appreciate Mike's commitment to learning the best practices in our industry and putting that information out to agents that have been in the business a long time or just starting out. Gordon J. As an individual that has always taken great pride in my ability to be goal-centric and a self-initiator, Mike Bowler, quickly broke down barriers that had been holding me back from even greater successes in my career one tiny bit at a time. Within six months of one-to-one real estate coaching, I had more than doubled my business. He kept me focused on the goal. In his words, on my first coaching call, and continues to resonate with me until this day, "coaching is about the future and not the past".

Thanks Mike for the positive impact you made on my life in a short period of time!

I signed up for the Core coaching with Mike Bowler, Sr. earlier this year. I wanted to take a moment and express how fabulous it has been to work with Mike. I was worried when I first signed up, that I would be demoralized and beaten up by a coach. Nothing could be further from the truth. Mike Bowler, Sr. is the most compassionate, caring, professional coach I could ever imagine. He is full of enthusiasm and knowledge. He is an expert at guiding me in his coaching skills. His knowledge of the business and ability to read the other person, and set goals together is awesome.

I appreciate his dynamic calls. And his follow-up is phenomenal. Tom Ferry Coaching is lucky to have Mike Bowler, Sr. with his education and knowledge and experience.

As an instructor and trainer of real estate technology, he is the best. Mike knows how to use the latest technology to enhance the real estate transaction. He can explain complex ideas in an entertaining and easy-to-grasp style! You won't go wrong having Mike do your next seminar! The audience will love it!

Mike Bowler is an incredible coach and mentor who is totally committed to his clients. Mike's upbeat attitude and enthusiasm is invaluable! I am so grateful to have the opportunity to have such a knowledgeable person as my coach. I couldn't recommend a better mentor and coach to have in my corner.

Heather McCardel

Mike is extremely knowledgeable and has a vast experience in the real estate business to help guide new agents.

Mike has been instrumental in assessing my strengths and weaknesses and then recommending a plan of action to address weaknesses. Mike has painted a clear picture of prospecting, both in terms of assessing and recommending prospecting sources/channels, as well as the strategy behind the recommendations. To date, this has resulted in 3 additional sales this year, and I am working on obtaining two additional listings from one buyer client of mine who I obtained via one of Mike's prospecting recommendations. Mike is easy to talk to, relate to and is very professional and supportive. While I was initially uneasy about "being under a microscope" and having my business, my strengths and weaknesses evaluated, Mike made me feel comfortable from day 1. Even though I have been a REALTOR full-time for 14 years and owned my own brokerage for the past 8 years, Mike has identified some key issues to help across the board, from prospecting, to systems, scripts and sales skills. Mike was instrumental in guiding me to successfully obtain a 600K listing, which I now have under contract, by recommending some listing presentation enhancements. Moreover, the Tom Ferry knowledgebase and training has been instrumental in helping me round out my service offering. Mike is an exceptional, experienced, awesome real estate coach who has a broad-based background in real estate education, coaching, and he understands the breadth and depth of Tom Ferry's program and can help tailor it to an individual's needs.

Mike's knowledge of the real estate profession is second to none. It's always refreshing to work with him, as doing things "the right way" is foremost in his mind. Mike and I have had occasion to work together on various projects and I've always been impressed by his ability to work through issues and determine the best course of action. I never hesitate to recommend Mike.

Mike Bowler is a top of the line real estate agent. I bought condominium 3.5 years ago (my very first home) and Mike was with me every step of the way. I'm incredibly happy with the condo he found for me, and all the help and guidance he gave me. I was glad to have entrusted my real estate needs to Mike Bowler, and I know you won't be disappointed if you do too!

I would have quit the business if not for Mike's coaching. I was already successful in the business but burned out. He gave me steps and tools that I needed to refocus and move forward.
